

Refund Policy

If a class is cancelled, participants receive a full refund. Refunds for any other reason are granted at the program director's discretion.

Delivery Method and Timing

Enrollment in classes is determined by the order in which registration and payment are received. Those using the mail-in method of registration may experience a delay in processing as these will be entered into the registration database on the first business day the payment and registration are received.